Publisher's Report—Seaside Ripples

A. E. 'Andy' Barragan, Publisher

By Clint Porter
(In the absence of Andy Barragan)

A lot of people are becoming very upset. But it's really not important, how upset they get. The thing that matters, in this age of "graff," is not how upset they are, it's how they "photograph".

A.E. Barragan

Well, that should last a couple of lifetimes, so let's go on to the business of a column. Many things have happened in the past week. I could utilize the space of at least two columns before I reached the half-way point. One of the important events recently was my introduction to a group of people of all ages who have one aim in life—to reach higher levels of consciousness thru self-discipline. I was amazed and quite impressed by the warmth and sincerity of the people.

Unfortunately, the system we live by prevents one from devoting all of their time towards the goal of their choice. At least part of each day is shared outside the interest of the heart, one way or another. Usually one has to pursue a gainful occupation. Seldom is this occupation connected with their interest or goal. Therefore compromises have to be made until such time they are free to mingle with the ones they love deeply.

I consider myself fortunate to have placed myself in a position in life whereas someone recognized my outstretched hand and grabbed it before I sank into the quicksand of circumstances.

Program Is Continuing

The Department of Social Welfare's Mexican-American program will continue and the search for someone to run it is still on, Welfare Director Robert E. Carleson said recently.

"We are continuing to deal with the counties that expressed an interest in getting a federally-funded personnel analyst in their welfare departments to recruit and train Mexican-Americans for jobs as welfare workers," Carleson said.

Carleson's statement was in response to questions about HEW's recent action in discontinuing the 100 percent federal funding enjoyed by the "Employment and Career Opportunities for the Mexican-American Group" program in the last two years.

But the same action recommended that Carleson develop similar programs in four to six California counties to be considered for funding in fiscal 1973.

"That was the objective of the program as originally set up," Carleson said. "So as far as I can see, the only result is that the program's special status has been cancelled and with it the 100 percent federal funding."

"We will continue to meet the program objectives on the normal basis of 25 percent state and 75 percent federal funding."

When the program staff submitted its resignations last month, Carleson appointed three high-ranking administrators to act as program stewards and to find a new director and staff to run it.

The state had requested $254,000 in federal funds to support the program during 1972-73.

Art Tour Is This Weekend

The 12th annual Studio-Arts Tour, sponsored by the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art, will be held Saturday, July 15, between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

At Macomber House, the unique "Log Cabin" situated in Pebble Beach, overlooking the ocean and Pebble Beach Golf Course, Vaughn Shoemaker twice has been awarded Pulitzer prizes for his cartoons.

Sculpture by Gary Courtwright, Sky Blue, Ken Wiese, Isabel Tavernetti, and Beth Garcia will also be shown at Macomber House, along with the paintings of Fern Yaden, William Stone, Jr., Barclay Ferruson, Albert C. undall, Anna Katz, Andrew Kovak and Jerry Van Megert. A privately-owned collection of priceless etchings, water-colors, and paintings will also be on view at this site.

Carmel artist, Louisa Kenkins, Danny Garcia, Frank Ashley and Carolyn Tyson will open their studios or homes for the Tour. Mr. Ashley will donate a painting to be sold to the highest bidder at a "silent" auction to be held at the Museum, following the Tour. At the Peter Sherman residence in Carmel, the Currier and Ives lithograph collection and a selection of early California paintings owned by Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, will be exhibited, along with recent paintings of recent paintings by Mrs. Johnson (Barbara).

In Carmel Meadows, painters Harriet Mayland and Jane Hoppin will welcome Tour guests to their homes. Marilyn Fry Brown paintings will also be shown at the Hoppin home. In addition, the Tour agenda includes the Pebble Beach studios of Mary Lou Morse and Kent Davis. The paintings of Albert Wascher will be shown on the balcony gallery at the Davis studio.

The Museum will feature the Hurschler Collection of Modern Tapestries and the paintings of Jere Predika.

On Cannery Row in Monterey, another group of artists have conjoined a surprise presentation designed to amuse and "utilitate" ticket-holders. Refreshments will be

Honor Students Named

The Dean's List of students who have distinguished themselves academically at Monterey Peninsula College during the spring 1972 semester has been released by the college registrar.

The list is broken into three parts: those receiving highest honor, those receiving high honor, and those receiving honor. Highest honor designates those who have earned a 4.0 grade point average on a four point scale. High honors are earned by students maintaining a grade point average of 3.5 to 3.99; honors are received by students with grades in the 3.0 to 3.49 range.

Employment Survey Next Week

Information on employment and unemployment will be collected in this area by the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce, during the week of July 17-21. C. Michael Long, Director of the Bureau's Data Collection Center in Los Angeles, announced recently.

The sample of households in this area taking part in the survey are among 50,000 across the nation scientifically selected to represent a cross section of all households.

The survey is taken monthly by the Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor, Statistics on conditions in the labor force are prime indicators of economic conditions of the country.

For example, the May survey showed that there were 4.3 million unemployed or 5.9 percent of the labor force. After seasonal adjustment, this was the same level as in April and March. Employment, however, increased slightly over the previous month, a continuation of a year-long upward trend. Since May 1971, the number of jobholders rose by 2.3 million, totaling 81.4 million in May of this year.

New Immunization Laws For First-Time Students

The Monterey Peninsula Unified School District has been notified that, starting in September, students entering California schools for the first time must have been immunized against diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough) and tetanus (DPT), depending on their ages.

Up to now, students entering school for the first time were only required to have been immunized against poliomyelitis and measles (rubella). The increased immunization program is a result of new state legislation.

The new regulations state that all pupils less than seven years of age entering California's public and private schools for the first time must have evidence of immunization against tetanus, diphtheria and pertussis, as well as poliomyelitis and measles (rubella). Pupils seven years of age or older who are entering the state's schools for the first time must have evidence of immunization against diphtheria and tetanus.

The law exempts new pupils seven years of age and older from the requirement for whooping cough immunization.

Each morning beginning September 5, a volunteer will phone the homes of Telecare members to check on their well being.

The daily reassurance call is for retired persons, widows, widowers, senior citizens, people convalescing from an illness or lonely shut-ins.

In order to receive the free service, it must be requested. Those interested may enroll by calling 624-5311, Ext. 339. They will be sent a registration form. These forms may be picked up at the hospital at the Auxiliary Reception Desk between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily or they may be obtained by writing to Telecare, Community Hospital, P.O. Box 88, Carmel, Cal. 93921.

If there is no answer when a volunteer calls a member, an alternate designated by that person - a friend, relative or neighbor with a house key - will check on the Telecare member.

Chairman of the new service is Mrs. Oloff Dahlstrand. Vice chairman is Mrs. Daniel La Mothe.

These entries will be accepted up to 4 p.m. Friday, July 21, at the Monterey County Fairgrounds or at designated photography shops in the five county area.

Chamber of Commerce Progress Report

By Verlaine Crawford
Manager

The sun broke through at just the right moment, and everyone enjoyed the fun and excitement of the beautiful Independence Day Parade on July 2nd in Seaside.

Fabulous marching units, gorgeous floats and beautiful girls, plus some great music supplied by marching bands, made the parade a huge success. Thousands of residents and guests from the entire Peninsula and surrounding area lined Fremont Blvd. as the Parade of Champions went marching by.

The day began at 7 a.m. with a delicious Pancake Breakfast, sponsored by the Seaside Chamber of Commerce. Sfc. Bill Brown, a member of the Chamber, organized army field kitchens and personnel, plus Board of Directors and members to dish up a great meal.

After the Parade, the Chamber held a delightful cocktail party for all the dignitaries from the Reviewing Stand at Butts Pontiac in the Monterey Peninsula Auto Center.

The Young Adults for Action did a marvelous job of serving their Chicken Barbecue to the many guests who stayed to watch the Watsonville Band give a rousing performance in the Auto Center.

All in all, the day was truly delightful. Everyone seemed to be absorbing the fabulous weather and the enthusiasm of all the participants. As one of the spectators remarked, all the people in the parade, as well as the thousands watching the parade, were taking their Sunday to show their patriotism by enjoying an Independence Day Parade.

The Chamber is moving full steam ahead on many projects for the businessmen and community. The Business Development Committee is now meeting monthly on the second Wednesday at 8 a.m. to discuss new business possibilities and land available with the City Planning Director and the Redevelopment Agency. The purpose is to coordinate activities so we may work together to bring in the kinds of business which can best serve our area.

The membership in the Chamber is growing by leaps and bounds. We have over 20 new members and are pushing for 50 more by September 1st to reach our goal of 200. Joining the Chamber is not a donation, but is an investment in the present and future of our community (and the dues are tax deductible).

Next week the Chamber is sending me to the yearly, Institute for Organization Management, at the University of Santa Clara. All Chamber Managers in the state attend this conference, and it is intended to help develop management techniques, communication abilities and coordination of community activities. I am very pleased to have the opportunity to participate in this interesting institute, and I hope to come back with some fabulous new ideas and projects for Seaside.

There is still some advertising space left on the Seaside-Peninsula Map. 20,000 maps are being printed with Seaside on one side and the entire Peninsula on the other. $65 gives you a 3 high by 4 wide advertisement bordering the map of Seaside, with lines drawn to your location on the map. Call the Chamber at 394-6501 for more information.

From start to finish, advises the National Automobile Club, drive with that extra measure of caution during this coming holiday season. Don't become a holiday statistic.

Artist Demonstrated In Seaside

A free lecture-demonstration of watercolor techniques by Berkeley artist Lewis Suzuki was presented by the Seaside Art Commission on Friday, July 7, at 7:30 p.m. in Seaside City Hall.

Widely known in the Bay Area, Suzuki was born in Los Angeles but educated in Japan. Returning to California in 1939, he attended Otis Art Institute in Los Angeles, the College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland and the Art Students League in New York. He is a member of the Society of Western Artists, the Oakland Art Association and the Marin Society of Artists.

Suzuki has a long list of honors: SWA Award at de Young Museum, SF Liberty National Bank Bond Award, the Atellier Award, 1st prize at Concord Art Show, Fairfield Art Festival, Berkeley Art Festival, Jewish Community Center Art Show and the SWA Downtown Show.

His paintings have been exhibited in California State Fairs, American Watercolor Society in New York; purchase awards were made by art association of Concord in 1966, of Delta in 1968 and of Lodi in 1968. He won 19 awards in 1968.

In April, 1972, Suzuki's watercolor painting was accepted at the "Watercolor, USA Exhibition" in Missouri, the toughest watercolor national competition in the nation. Art critics say that his "wet on wet" technique is outstanding; "while the influence of George Post appears in a few works of his, there is a Duffy quality to some of his more abbreviated ones. Suzuki's personal contribution to the watercolor scene is animation—figures blurred in action, lines of motion...."

Parents Council Forming

The Seaside Parks & Recreation Department is in the process of forming a Parents Advisory Council. The Council's main function is to promote more youth activities at the Seaside Youth Center for the youth of this community.

The first meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, July 12, at 7 p.m. at the Seaside Youth Center, 1158 Wheeler Street. We highly encourage interested parents to attend this first meeting.

Seaside Ripples

Let me tell you just one of the things I have learned. I learned that I have been playing the game of the conformist. You know them: "Peace at any price." The price has been heavy. As a conformist I had to surrender all individuality to others. I could never risk not being accepted. So I have always been willing to "go along" with others. Without realizing it, I developed what I now know as "psychosomatic symptoms" because my subconscious mind became overloaded with all the things I had to hold back in order to be considered a "good guy."

I now know that there is no such "I" or "Me" or personal pronoun. What really functions within is called a machine. Not unlike any other machine, except this one can talk. This one can think. This one can see. This one can hear. In fact this is the only machine known that has all of the senses. But this machine has to be plugged into an outlet. The most important thing is that this machine can learn. If it learns well enough, it will be able to teach other machines. And those machines, more machines. It will go on and on, improving as it progresses, until eventually things and circumstances will be better. Then, and only then will there be lasting peace. All this will happen if this machine is plugged into the correct outlet. The outlet in this case is the teacher machine, and the fuel the teacher machine uses that makes it teach. If the teacher machine is using fuel not conducive to the situation of the machine it is teaching, the teaching machine will either change its type of fuel or discontinue teaching that machine.

As was mentioned earlier, this machine produced only conformist reactions. Therefore the teaching machine will have to dismantle those gears and replace them with gears that are neutral. To be a conformist leaves one with no mind of its own, like a robot. And it will never grow up.

Example of non-conformist was revealed to me a few days ago: it seems that anyone holding a position on the State level cannot participate actively in political campaigns, while holding down that position. A lady employee of the Human Resources and Development Division was recently nominated for a position of Delegate for the National Democratic Convention now convening in Florida. She was told by her supervisor and her supervisor's supervisor that she could not participate at the Convention without taking the risk of losing her employment. She refused to conform to the restrictions of her employment position. Last Friday evening she explained to Miami. When she returns to the Monterey Peninsula in a few days, she expects to be asked to resign. She will refuse. She is expecting to lose her job. If this happens, she will go down swinging. Even if she has to swing from the limbs of the Supreme Court. I had a long talk with her the other morning before she left, and she feels she is right to stand up for what she believes.

My boss, Andy, is a non-conformist. We need not go into long details again on his situation. But suppose he did not stand up for what he believed in or gone along with all the doctors were saying about him. He would probably have just wasted away with no one being the blame, except himself. Suppose he had gone along with them so he could have been considered a "good guy?" This machine of mine, and probably yours, would never have known we could function without the necessary "gas and oil" being supplied to the "carburetor" by our built-in "fuel pump."

The more we live, more brief appear our life's succeeding stages:

A day to childhood seems a year, And years like passing ages.

President

Tim Partch of Seaside, a senior mathematics major, has been named president of the Music Board of Control and the Music Club of California Polytechnic State University in San Luis Obispo for the 1972-73 academic year. Partch is the son of Mrs. Pat Partch of Seaside. Other students will serve a dual role for the two Cal Poly clubs. Serving as their vice-president will be Richard Freier, a graduate student in electronics; as secretary, Gretchen Osman, a junior architectural engineering major.

Freier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Freier of Redding, Miss Osman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Osman of Paso Robles, and Young is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Young of Lafayette.

Red Cross Awards

More than 100 American Red Cross Volunteers gathered recently at the Ft. Ord Officers' Club to receive awards for service performed at Silas B. Hays Army Hospital, Ft. Ord Dental Clinics and the Navy Dispensary.

Colonel Edward O'Shaughnessy, director of medical activities, told the volunteers their services were indispensable in the Army's "Delivery System" for medical services. Mrs. H. G. Moore, wife of the commanding general of Ft. Ord and honorary chairman of Red Cross Volunteers, presented pins to the volunteers who have contributed from one to 29 years of service to their community through Red Cross.

Your Supervisor Reports

The preliminary budget for the County of Monterey was presented to the Board of Supervisors a few days ago. This was followed later by the assessor's announcement that the value of the County assessment rolls had increased by approximately $60 million and was primarily due to new construction projects in various areas of the County.

Since these sources of information were made available I have given the County Budget and County Tax Rate a great deal of careful thought.

Letters To The Editor

Editor: We are a silent minority; we desire to participate. A home is where the heart is, Marina is our home. Ninety-nine percent (99%) of us Filipino-Americans are in favor of incorporation of Marina. We, a spirited group, from every walk of life are interested to participate in incorporation. We want to get involved and help in this venture and dream of making Marina a city.

Let us make it a real thing. Steam up a spirit of accommodation from every segment of our Community, regardless of differences in faces, customs, traditions, culture and creed. That we are one, united with one heart and mind in making Marina an incorporated city. Let us prove to ourselves that DEMOCRACY IS A WORKABLE vehicle under which all mankind and benefit and live together with understanding and tolerance.

Participation is the key word. Let us have a deep and abiding concern to contribute our full share in making Marina a City. With nobility of purpose and willingness to sacrifice, we can make Marina a beautiful city and heaven for all of us.

Election motivates good ideas and declaration of principles on which a candidate states his stand for the good of the city.

Opinion is vital to a living Democracy. This freedom of opinion is a right, a heritage and a responsibility of every individual under the bill of rights. In view of this precept, we Filipino-Americans would like to recommend Mr. Leonardo M. Cancio to be one of the five Councilman as our representative to contribute ideas of our concern as a segment and part of this Community.

Mrs. Cancio has the ability and qualities as a leader to represent us. He is exceptionally honest and meticulously qualified to hold the office which he is seeking. Socially and politically he is elite and very prominent. He is the President of the Philippines Scouts Association of America, (Survivors of Bataan and Corregidor); President of the Fil-American Council of Monterey County; Worshipful Master or President of Rizal Lodge #3; Caballeros De Dimasalan, Inc.; member of the board of Directors of the Philippine Community of Salinas and Civic League of Salinas; member of Castroville Fil-American Association; American Legion Post 652; VFW; DAV and some other organizations too numerous to mention.

His Army career spanned two wars, World War II, and Korean War, totaling 30 years of active duty in the United States Army. He served in the Army both enlisted and commissioned officer. In view of his experiences Mr. Cancio's life has been one of unquestionable loyalty and unselfish devotion to his country and people. If elected councilman, his participation in the city affairs will give a new direction in outlining how our group meaningfully contributes to our community progress and well being.

We Filipino-Americans in Marina highly recommend and endorse Mr. Leonardo M. Cancio, for Councilman of Marina. Vote on July 18, 1972 for Mr. Cancio. Let us all participate and pull together in making Marina a City.

Editor: We are told that although the government did not take the action in Chile that was recommended to them by IT&T, the Nixon administration applied certain measures of its own. I cannot believe that the administration's plan is not far different, in effect, from the one suggested by IT&T.

How anyone can believe that the government of the United States is not an aggressive, imperialistic force when it possesses the ability and the desire to create "economic chaos" in Chile, and that it is the protector of the free world when it takes that action to frustrate and eventually unseat a freely elected leader, is manifest of an ignorance that could only be existent and untended in our country.

People who are ignorant and apathetic eventually become great fantasists. They are able to pretend that nothing is going on in the world that human intelligent people should care about. They are able to redefine atrocious or primitive actions in the name of one political abstraction or another. Worst of all, they sell their own freedom and safety down the river at the same time as the next man's.

Life can seem pretty rough sometimes. Greed, carelessness and anger can get to you, if you let them.

But many people have found something that is helping them hold on—something that is restoring peace and order and purpose in their lives. It's a deeper knowledge of God, gained through reading the Bible and the Christian Science textbook.

As I See It

BY MEL VERCOE

As the scene opens today we find John and Martha happily drinking coffee in a restaurant near the White House. Martha wants to drop by and tell Mr. Nixon how the Republicans can't win in November without her spiritual help, and John is trying desperately to talk her into going into seclusion for about five years so that she can write the best-seller of the century. John, of course, has a personal interest in her literary career. If he can't distract her until after November, she will do Nixon about as much good as the continuing McGovern-Humphrey discussion will do for the Democrats, and that is not much.

"Martha, I'm telling you for the last time, I want you to quit embarrassing me and Dick. If you make one more of your blasted phone calls to the press, I am going to leave you. Do you hear me, Martha?"

"Stop shouting, John. People are watching us again. Give me a dime for the phone. I promised the Washington Post a story about how you had the guard disconnect my phone."

And so we leave our happy couple and we wonder if it will all really make much difference in the long run.

The United States is already pretty much the laughing stock of the rest of the world. Like a guy who doesn't want to lose his brand new anchor and hangs onto it all the way to the bottom of the ocean, we are determined to continue policies that have priced us out of competition with other nations, and we have priced ourselves out of the meat business, so now we have to lower the barriers so housewives can buy imported meat so they won't complain too much about rising prices, at least until after November. Nobody seems to give much thought to anything beyond that time in future history. It just seems sometimes that it would be simpler to just shut off the faucet rather than try to figure out what to do with the water running over the edge of the bathtub.

Thus, we have at least two schools of thought. Those who think the radiator and the engine and the gas supply are important in an automobile out in the middle of a desert, and those who think the wax job on the hood is more important. So the pretense about Pres. Thieu's tenure in power being essential to American security and democracy in Asia must go on, and with Richard Nixon's reelection in November practically in the bag, thanks to George and Hubert and in spite of John and Martha, the war will go on for as long as it takes to train the South Vietnamese to defend themselves (estimates vary from fifty to five hundred years), and the real problem is that we don't have that much time. We will succumb to either fascism or communism or both long before Thieu can convince his subjects that he is the second coming of Christ.

It would certainly be an interesting show to watch, if one could detach himself from caring about the outcome.

Today's Army NEWS
By
SSG R. Cardwell
ARMY RECRUITER

Hello everyone. This week's TODAY'S ARMY NEWS is about an Army THE PEOPLE WANT. Who are the people? You are. Many times I wonder why are people so hostile toward the Armed Forces. In some of my talks with the people I've come in contact with, some stated that we don't need the Armed Forces. Can you imagine what would happen or where we would be if there were no military defense? No, you can not because the great leaders of yester year have made the situations in America undefeatable. So we have not lived the life of a defeated country to see how life would be. The Armed Forces to the people is like parents to their children. You don't want larger children or a child with a stick to beat your child, therefore you protect your children until they reach the age that they can protect themselves. So defense is the reason for the Armed Forces.

The US Army is building an Army that respects itself more. An Army that we the people of the United States respects more. And an Army is the people of the United States. Like the many challenges it has met before, the Army is meeting this one. Our plan is PROFESSIONALISM. To motivate inner discipline and pride within an environment of dignity and freedom. The plan for the Modern Army has two goals. A finer Army and a Volunteer Army. Finer because its professionalism will be strengthened. Finer because only those with the skill and strong motivation to serve will be attracted to serve. And because their skill, courage, pride and dedication will be recognized and rewarded through improved job satisfaction. A satisfying professional status. A better Army life. The ability to live with dignity and decency while one serves. These will help make the Modern Army a volunteer Army, attractive to the best of America's young men and women.

The following people enlisted in the month of June: Dennis Carvalho, 409-Reindollar Ave., Marina; Richard Friend, 3082 Helena Way, Marina; Noe Valentine Cruz-Gonzalez, 481 Lewis Pl., Marina; Frank Souza, 3345 Drew St., Marina; Paul Jones 164 Gigling Rd., Ft. Ord; Eric Gamez, 164 Gigling Rd., Ft. Ord; Jack L. Tandy, Ft. Ord; Alfonso Mitchell, 1585 Ancon St., Seaside; Larry Byrd, 1876 Noche Buena, Seaside; and Henry Leinen 2000 Mari-rosa St., Seaside.

For information about enlisting contact us at 431-Webster St., Monterey or call 373-4742/372-0553.

Drive Is Started

The four-week period starting this week is Olympic Fund-Drive Month.

The sponsor of this event is the Red Barn Restaurant chain.

'Come Back' Is Coming

"Come Back Charleston Blue," the Samuel Goldwyn, Jr., motion picture production for Warner Bros. starring Godfrey Cambridge and Raymond St. Jacques, will open in key cities across the United States in July, following its premiere in Chicago and Detroit.

Cambridge and St. Jacques again star as Gravedigger Jones and Coffin Ed Johnson, the Harlem police detectives they originally portrayed in "Cotton Comes to Harlem." Co-starred are Jonelle Allen and Peter DeAnda. Al Fann was the film's associate producer.

OUTDOOR SHAKESPEARE IN CARMEL - Love song, sung by Feste, the Clown, puts the Duke and his page in romantic mood in "Twelfth Night," Shakespeare's comic masterpiece, as played by James Mairs, Edwin Chapman and June Ballinger. The lavishly mounted comedy is being given on open air stage of once-famous Forest Theater in Carmel on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays at 8:30 p.m. during July. Two officers standing by are Jeff Hudelson and John Fitzmaurice.

Ashland Shakespeare Festival Under Way

The main portion of the Oregon Shakespearean Festival's 32nd marathon season began June 24 with a performance of "The Taming of the Shrew," directed by Robert Benedetti of Toronto. The season, longest in the theatre's history, will feature six productions in a daily matinee and evening schedule through September 10.

"Standing Room Only" was the rule for the initial performance, which was preceded by the traditional "Feast of the Tribe of Will" in Ashland's Lithia Park. A blue ribbon crowd of West Coast civic officials, educators and press helped to herald the 160-performance season.

Included in the 1972 repertory are "The Taming of the Shrew," "Love Labour's Lost" and "Henry the Fourth, Part Two" in the outdoor Elizabethan Theatre. Matinee performances of "The Crucible" by Arthur Miller and "Uncle Vanya" by Anton Chekhov opened in the Angus Bowmer Theatre.

Full information is available through 31 branch ticket agencies which operate as public services throughout Oregon and parts of California, Washington and Nevada or "Shakespeare," Box 605, Ashland, Oregon brochure to 97520.

'Godspell' Opens July 18

Casting is now complete and rehearsals underway for the American Conservatory Theater's presentation of the joyous new musical, "Godspell," opening July 18 at the Geary Theatre.

Based on the Gospel According to St. Matthew, the highly-praised rock musical was conceived and originally directed in New York by John-Michael Tebelak, with music and lyrics by Stephen Schwartz.

The Edgar Lansbury, Stuart Duncan and Joseph Beruh production, under the direction of Nina Faso, features an ensemble of young performers in the interchangeable roles of Jesus and His followers.

Among the bay area performers included in the "Godspell" cast is Black singer Angela Ruth Elliott, whose hometown is Santa Rosa. Faye Butler, who appeared in the San Francisco companies of "Hair," "The Fantasticks," "No Place to Be Somebody," and teaches at Cal State-Hayward is another cast member who is Black.

In Plain Talk . . . BONDED BEEF is beef that Lucky guarantees to be flavorful, tender and superior in quality. If, for any reason, any cut of Lucky's beef fails to please you, the purchase price will be refunded cheerfully without question.

Lucky's BOND is a Guarantee . . . an Unconditional Guarantee of Satisfaction.

Because today's homemaker prefers lean, tender and flavorful beef, we BOND our beef unconditionally because we have our own strict quality standards specifically designed to warrant the confidence and satisfaction of Lucky customers. Our many years of experience in selecting beef, backed by extensive research studies made by leading universities, have shown that beef from youthful steers properly fed to produce a small-to-modest amount of intramuscular fat and a thin layer of outside fat, produces a tender and lean beef. Bonded Beef must be just old enough to have developed a full-bodied flavor, yet young enough to be tender and juicy. It must have enough marbling (streaks of fat throughout the meat) to give it a delicious taste, but without excessive fat which would only raise the cost per pound to the consumer, and is an economic waste.

Lucky Unconditionally Bonded Beef means quality that is consistent . . . beef you can always serve with pride and confidence . . . beef that is trimmed to give you more servings per pound.

With these important facts about Bonded Beef, we feel you will find meat shopping easier and more economical. Meat is important at Lucky . . . it's important to us because it's important to you. That's why you'll always find over 300 meat items available at Lucky at low everyday discount prices . . . every day of the week!

A's Acquire Cepeda

The Atlanta Braves sold former National League Most Valuable Player, first baseman Orlando Cepeda, to the A's June 29 for the right to buy the contract of former American League Most Valuable Player, pitcher Denny McLain, from the A's. AA Birmingham farm club of the Southern League.

The 34-year-old right-handed Cepeda, one of the premier sluggers in the game throughout his 14-year major league career, is returning to the Bay Area after spending 3 years with St. Louis and 3 with Atlanta following his 8 seasons as one of the most popular members of the San Francisco Giants.

Cepeda was unanimously selected as the National League's Rookie of the Year with San Francisco in 1958 when he hit .312 with 25 home runs and 96 RBIs. Orlando enjoyed the top home run and RBI year of his career with the Giants in 1961, as he cracked 46 round trippers and drove in 142 runs.

"The Baby Bull" had his finest all-around year with the Cardinals in 1967, when he hit his career high average of .325 with 25 home runs and 111 RBIs. In recognition for leading St. Louis to the National League Championship and an eventual World Championship, Cepeda became the only player in the history of baseball to be named the Most Valuable Player unanimously.

Cepeda was batting exactly at his career average of .298 in 28 games with the Braves this year. He had 4 home runs and 9 RBIs.

McLain, acquired by the A's from Texas on March 4, was 1-2 with a 6.05 ERA for Oakland early in the season and was optioned to Birmingham on May 16.

Earlier, the A's purchased 30-year-old outfielder - first baseman Art Shamsky from the Chicago Cubs. The left-handed Shamsky tied a major league record in 1966 by hitting home runs in 4 consecutive at bats as a member of the Cincinnati Reds and had his top home run total of 21 that year. Shamsky also played for the New York Mets for four years, including their 1969 World Championship team, and was the property of the St. Louis Cardinals last winter, before joining the Cubs. With Chicago, Shamsky appeared almost solely as a pinch hitter, collecting 2 hits in 16 at bats with one RBI.

New Auto Financing Available

Bank of America has announced a new finance program designed to make buying a new car easier on the pocketbook.

Called the "Auto-Magic" program, it is the first of its kind anywhere. It will offer a 24 to 36-month auto financing plan featuring low monthly payments.

"Under the plan, monthly payments -- excluding the final one -- will be based on the difference between the car's sale price, less down payment, and its approximate wholesale value at the contract's maturity as projected at the time of sale," said K.V. Larkin, Bank of America senior vice president.

"In effect, the borrower's monthly payments will be substantially lower because he would be repaying on this difference rather than on the total value of the car," Larkin noted.

The balance of the contract, which would be the approximate wholesale value of the car as projected at the time of the sale, would be due as the final payment.

Under the plan, if the borrower chooses to sell his car at the contract's maturity the auto dealer would repurchase it for the amount of he final payment, providing the car meets predetermined wear and tear requirements.

If the borrower does not choose to sell the car to the auto dealer, he may make the final payment and keep the car, or he may sell the car elsewhere and apply the proceeds to the final payment.

Larkin said the new plan is designed to augment the bank's existing new car financing and leasing programs.

"We believe Auto-Magic will be particularly suited to car owners who tend to trade in their automobiles at regular intervals, or to people who prefer to invest less capital in a car," Larkin said.

The Auto-Magic plan will be available throughout California at new car dealers who offer Bank of America financing.

Background Of Rodeo Is Rich

The first California Rodeo was presented in 1911 when the century was new and the Western frontier was still a live memory in the minds of many of the committee of townspeople who created it. Except in years of state or national emergency it has been presented every year since by a committee of fifty-two directors who serve without pay. Membership on the board of directors is an honor or highly prized and often handed down from father to son. President of this year's rodeo to be held July 20 through 23 is Homer M. Hayward.

In a concurrent Senate and Assembly resolution adopted January 17, 1957, the California legislature commended the members of the board of directors of the California Rodeo "for the great service they render annually to the State of California and its people."

The California Rodeo is one of the "Big Four" of the world. Long before the cowboys had their own association the far-seeing directors instituted reforms for the betterment of the cowboy and the protection of the stock. These have now become standard procedures and have made the California Rodeo a model for cowboy contests throughout the nation. They have also made the California Rodeo the cowboys' favorite. Last year 348 of the world's top cowboys competed in bareback riding, team and calf roping and steer wrestling. There were an additional 182 contestants on the track.

The California Rodeo is the richest four performance event of its kind in the world and the only one to offer every cowboy a head of stock and hence a chance to win money, every day, if the number of entries permits. Last year the prize money in the arena, alone, amounted to almost $50,000. This prize money consists of a purse of $17,000 put up by the California Rodeo, entry fees of $50 to $100 per man per event put up by the cowboys and upon occasion, national television sponsorship fees. Unlike most rodeos which have only one stock contractor, the California Rodeo's arena committee picks the bulls and broncs which appear at Salinas from the top strings of at least two contractors and on occasion has used as many as four. The result, as the late Bill Linderman, former secretary of the Rodeo Cowboy's Association, said, is "the kind of stock which separates the men from the boys."

Simultaneously with the cowboy contests a program of horse show events races and contract acts is presented on the track which encircles the arena. The California Rodeo is noted especially for its trick riders of which it makes a specialty. The California Rodeo adheres to the old tradition of exciting action under the open

Receives Honor

Lieutenant Colonel Pat K. Elliot, deputy inspector general of Ft. Ord, received the Legion of Merit Medal June 29, in a ceremony at the Inspector General's Office. LtCol. Elliot came to Ft. Ord from Korea, where he was Executive Officer of Plans and Training.

LtCol. Elliot received a battlefield commission in 1944 and has served in the Army for 30 years. sky. Its setting is picturesque with the historic Gabilan mountain range for a backdrop. Every provision has been made for the comfort of spectators. The arena is treated so that no dust reaches the huge grandstand. The spectator area and even the parking lot is a carpet of green grass.

There are three different parades held during the California Rodeo's traditional "Big Week". The first of these is on Wednesday night. It is called the Kiddie Kapers parade and more than 3,000 children from throughout the county participate. Thursday through Sunday there is a Daily Parade of more than 1,000 horses and riders down Main Street to the rodeo grounds. Saturday night brings the beautiful Colmo del Rodeo lighted night float parade. Other events include Square and Folk dancing Friday evening, the Frontier breakfast Saturday morning and Foley and Burk combined shows all week.
